

First Profession, Arusha, Tanzania

“May I be a source of mercy and compassion to the lost and the weak” is the song sung by the six new temporary professed Sisters of the Holy Spirit General Delegation, Arusha, Tanzania on June 4, 2016.

Rev. Fr. Peddy Castellino, SVD was the main celebrant together with four other priests, two of whom had come all the way from Uganda.

The parents and a number of relatives of our Sisters from Uganda and Kenya were present. Many sisters and brothers from the neighbouring Formation Houses were also present for the celebration.
